* Fraternities *

Masonic.

LODGES. Today—Myron M. Parker, No. 27, 7 p.m., religious services, Douglas Memorial M. E. Church. Monday—Dawson, No. 16, E. A.; Stans-bury, No. 24, business.

Tuesday Federal, No. 1, F. C.; Acacia, No. 18, M. M.; King David, No. 28, special, business; Takoma, No. 29, E. A. Wednesday-Harmony, No. 17, 5:45 p.m., E. A., and 7:30 p.m., M. M. Thursday—The New Jerusalem, No. 9, M. M.; Temple-Noyes, No. 32, M. M.; Naval, No. 4, special, M. M.; Myron M. Parker, No. 27, special, M. M.

Friday—Washington Centennial, No. 14, special, 6:30 p.m., M. M. and re-union. Saturday-La Fayette, No. 19, special, ROYAL ARCH CHAPTERS. nday-Mount Vernon, No. 3, P. M. and M. E. M. Tuesday-Mount Horeb, No. 7, Mark, Wednesday-Columbia, No. 1, special, R. A. Thursday-Washington, No. 2, business. KNIGHTS TEMPLAR COMMANDERIES.

ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE. Tuesday—Robert de Bruce Council, Kulghts Kadosh, business.

ROYAL AND SELECT MASTERS. MISCELLANEOUS. Friday-Almas Temple of the Mystic Shrine, ceremonial and banquet.

Worshipful Master Galt W. Bower Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, when action also will be taken on certain financial matters.

Ernest H. Carnes, captain of the host, and Myron D. Smith, principal so-journer, will head the official line in the P. M. and M. E. M. degrees, respec-tively, in Mount Vernon Royal Arch Chapter, No. 3, tomorrow evening.

Junior Warden William S. Quinter will head the official line in the F. C. degree in Federal Lodge, No. 1, Tues-day evening, when also action looking to closing the lodge books will be King David Lodge, No. 28, will devote the time at its special Tuesday evening to the dues question.

High Priest Raymond B. Dickey ha announced the Mark degree in Mount Horeb Royal Arch Chapter, No. 7, Tues-day evening, with William W. Scott, king of the chapter, heading the offi-cial line.

Lodge, No. 10, especially the latter's degree team, and they will present the M. M. degree in Lodgeroom No. 1. The New Jerusalem Lodge will have its Halloween entertainment for its members and the women of their families and invited guests in the banquet hall of Masonic Temple the evening of October 25

Worshipful Master Frank M. Scott of Hiram Lodge, No. 10, announces that Walter Zachary, secretary of the committee on testimonial to Grand Tiler Warren Eickford, October 30, is rapidly receiving the subscriptions of members of the craft who will par-ticipate at the Evans building, 1420 New York avenue northwest.

Friday evening, starting at 6:30 o'clock, Washington Centennial Lodge, No. 14, will have a gala evening and riunion, beginning with the M. M. degree, presented by the Masters' Association of 1916, and later resolving the occasion into a testimonial reception for Ed S. Schmid, one of its most popular members, who was elevated to the high position of deputy grand monarch of the Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets at the last session of the Supreme of the Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets at the last session of the Supreme Council of that order. Arminius Lodge, Nc. 25, will be specially invited for the occasion and there will be "all sorts of patriotic and other doings," concluding with a banquet specially designed for the occasion, in the banquet hall of Masonic Temple.

At 7:30 p.m. at the National Rifles' Armory, the muessin's call will gather the faithful of Almas Temple of the Mystic Shrine, with their mystical camels and accourtements, for the third ceremonial session marking the reign of Illustrious Potentate L. Whiting Estes. From far beyond the horison of the sun-kissed sands of the desert have come reports from the desert have come reports from the faithful "bulis" and "bears," and rumor has it that the horde of wandering tribesmen who will make the flight for purification has necessitated the reinforcement of the Arab Patrol, which purification has necessitated the reinforcement of the Arab Patrol, which Louis Captain Wilson assures the potentiate is now fully prepared for the ordeal that is promised. Venerable Shelk Dingman in his latest scroll admonishes the nobles of the protection of the red fez and speaks of a transition now taking place from the gaudily colored passport that has served them faithfully and well during the present fleeting year to the symbol of love and purity needed for their journey after midnight Saturday, when the white field of their countersign will be illumined alone with red.

A notable feature of the coming cermonial will be the traditional banquet that will follow at the Old Masonic Temple at 5th and F streets northwest, when the illustrious potentate will foresake his sacred seclusion and speak ex cathedra words of grave import to the temple touching the future. The nobles are bidden to the feast and to linger long, for much is in store for them.

Columbia Council, U. D., Royal and Select Masters, will hold its second stated assembly Friday evening, when Dr. Montgomery Hunter, in the ab-sence from the city of Illustrious Mas-ter Camp will preside Approximate. ter Camp, will preside. Announcement of the date of the ceremonial session in contemplation will be made upon the return of the illustrious master. A welcome is to be accorded the twelve new members received July 26.

La Fayette Lodge. No. 19, will have the M. M. degree at a special, which will convene Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, which will conclude the work for the present Masonic year, which unanimously against any proposition to increase the fees for the symbolic degrees. A special committee of past masters was appointed to look fully into certain recommendations of Grand Master Jermane and to report their findings to the lodge. The lodge will have the E. A. degree at its next communication. October 4, with Senior Steward Charles Stew have the E. A. degree at its next communication, October 4, with Senior Steward Charles Stewart Gawler heading the official line.

Son, was in attendance.

The Drill Corps of Kallipolis Grotto is strenuously pushing arrangements for its Halloween hop at the New Wil-tion season Monday evening. Three new members were added to the roll. A repast was served.

Columbia Royal Arch Chapter, No. 1, after a recess of two months, resumed work Wednesday evening, when the mark, past and most excellent masters degrees were presented. A special convocation will be held Wednesday for the Royal Arch degree. A number of new petitions were received.

General Grand High Priest George E. Corson has returned from a week's trip to Maine and Massachusetts. However or Chicago.

About 90 per cent of the membership of the organization is east of the same has a reception and banquet with an attendance of 200. The following Monday evening he was the guest of Mt. Horeb Chapter at Lowell, Mass., where also a reception and banquet with an attendance of 200. The following Monday evening he was the guest of Mt. Horeb Chapter at Lowell, Mass., where also a reception and banquet was tendered him. He was received and greeted him. He was received and greeted here by the Grand High Priest of Massachusetts and by a past grand high priests and about 400 companions. The next day he was given a luncheon in Boston by the officers and past grand high priests of the Grand Chapter of Massachusetts and in the evening he made an official visitation to the grand Chapter at its its to the grand chapter of Massachusetts and in the vening he made an official visitation to the grand chapter of the grand chapter of for measurements and past grand high priests of the Grand Chapter of Massachusetts, and in the evening he made an official visitation to the grand chapter at its to the grand chapter of the grand Chapter of Massachusetts, and in the evening he made an official visitation of the grand Chapter of of members will attend the expectation that a larger number of members will attend the expectation that a larger number of members will attend the season of the membership of the organization is east of the grand chapter of the grand chapter in the evening he made an official vis-itation to the grand chapter at its quarterly convocation, which was sup-plemented with an elaborate banquet summer recess.

An invitation was accepted to attend services at Ryland M. E. Church Dawson Lodge, No. 16, will devote tomorrow evening to entertainment and incidentally to the subject of dues.

Worshinful Master E. J. Avers of arrangements.

Worshipful Master E. J. Ayers of Stansbury Lodge, No. 24, has announced that no degree work will be presented tomorrow evening, but that the principal business will be "closing the books."

Was appointed to make the necessary arrangements.

The commandery will attend the Massonic bazaar at Alexandria the evening of October 26, having accepted the invitation extended through Past Grand Commander Charles T. Lindsey and E. S. Claude Fletcher of Old Dominion Commandery.

At a recent special communication of Benjamin B. French Lodge, No. 15, the M. M. degree was presented. The Masters' Association of 1916 participated in the work. The attendance was large, and after the degree refreshments were served in the banquet room of the temple.

Worshipful Master James P. Schick has announced a reunion of the lodge has announced a reunion of the lodge has outlined for this fall a number of interesting occasions. A "ladies" night is contemplated and an illustrated lecture is planned for an early communication.

Roanoke, Va., is to have a grand celebration October 14, that being the date fixed for the institution of the new Kazim Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S. D. C. O'Flaherty has been deputized by the imperial potentiate to conduct the ceremonies. Richmond will have evening at Masonic Temple, will have no at the conclusion of a short business in session the program presented included instrumental and vocal music, dialect stories and selections by the Fraternity Band. Refreshments and cigars were served.

Monarch George H. Emmons, jr., has announced that the next ceremonial session of Kallipolis Grotto, Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets, will be held at a large class is expected and a prometal prophets in the ments, will be provided.

The popularity of the selection of william F. Gude as chairman of the committee of arrangements for the next convention of the Supreme Council, which meets in Washington in June, 1917, was amply testified in the addresses and the enthusiasm shown at the meeting held at the New Willard Emmons extolled Mr. Gude in introducing him and again when the latter pledged his best efforts to the cause. No time is to be lost in getting ready is inviting suggestions from all the prophets in the matter.

The Grotto Band entertained the similar prophets in the matter.

The Grotto Band entertained the metertaining the band at his residence.

"Judge Jocko," the famous Grotto worker who has hear heart worker who has hear heart worker will devote its efforts in betaining, will devote its efforts in the measure music, dialect and Eastern Star Home. Mrs. Clara W. Robbins will have charge of the "endowment fund for the Masonic Eastern Star Home. Mrs. Clara W. Robbins will have charge of the endowment fund for the mental made Eastern Star Home. Mrs. Clara W. Robbins will have charge of the endowment fund fearter Home. Mrs. Clara W. Robbins will have charge of the "endowment night" entertainment. Refeature. The worthy matron, Mrs. Tillie C. Chauncey, has announced that she will be pleased to welcome members of the chapter as well as their friends who may be interested in the home movement.

William F. Hunt Chapter, No. 16. The story, which is written in verse, and the matron, of the design will have two features—one the conferring of the degrees with the chairs filled by the matron of the surface of the chap dence.

"Judge Jocke," the famous Grotto monkey, who has been having a vacation at the home of Past Grand Monarch Henry A. MacGruer, at Syracuse, N. Y., has returned to his quarters at the Schmid residence. He is a great favorite with the prophets.

Aryan Grotto of Chicago, which broke all records with its class of 1,508 initiated at one session last year, is planning another big ceremonial.

Capital Royal Arch Chapter, No. 11. is to have its "ladies" night and dance"
Friday evening in the new Masonic Temple, at 8th and F streets north-

The Ashlar Club combined business with pleasure at its meeting last night at old Masonic Temple. 9th and F streets northwest. W. Clifford Stumph, soloist at the Epiphany Church, sang; Clay E. Holmes, accompanied by Rob-ert Gooch, played a violin solo, and others contributed in various ways to make the evening pleasant.

Hope Lodge, No. 20, has announced the E. A. degree for October 13. Anacostia Lodge, No. 21, will devote the evening of October 2 to the sub-ject of dues.

A week from tomorrow evening the Scottish Rite bodies will open their fall reunion with the degrees from the fourth. "secret master," to the sixth, "confidential secretary," inclusive, in Mithras Lodge of Perfection. Each evening thereafter, starting at 7:30 o'clock, the degrees will be presented, concluding with the thirty-second degree, "master of the royal secret," in Albert Pike Consistory, Saturday evening, October 7. The cagts for the variing. October 7. The casts for the vari-ous degrees will be presented in full in The Star next Sunday. Thursday, Octo-ber 12, Mithras Lodge of Perfection will have its annual banquet at the Cathedral of the Rite, 3d and Estreets northwest. The big membership committee headed by Wiliam T. Galliher, 32d degree, is said to be accomplishing unusual results in enrolling the brethren for the higher degrees and a large class of prominent Masons is promised.

Washington Council, No. 1, Royal and Select Masters, met after the vacation season Monday evening. Three new members were added to the roll. A repast was served.

The Drill Cerps of Kallipolis Grotto is strenuously pushing arrangements for its Halloween hop at the New Willard Cotober 31. Personally tendered invitations have been extended to the Philadelphia.

of the Order of the Eastern Star of the District of Columbia will be held at Masonic Temple Saturday evening, Sephas called Myron M. Parker Lodge, No. 27, to assemble at its hall this evening at 7 o'clock for the purpose of attending religious services at Douglas Memorial M. E. Church. The lodge will present the M. M. degree at a special. Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, The lodge will the present the M. M. degree at a special. Orient Commandery resumed its conclaves Monday night after the usual summer recess. ing the Masonic and Eastern Star Home

Religious services at the Masonic and Religious services at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home this afternoon at 3 o'clock will be held under the auspices of Martha Chapter, No. 4. Rev. Howard I. Stewart, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, will officiate. Miss Marion Richardson and the Martha Chapter choir will have charge of the music. Members of the order and their friends are invited to attend.

The Ladies' Home Board Auxiliary the Masonic and Eastern Star Home will resume its meetings tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Masonic Temple. The president, Mrs. Emilie R. Botsch, has asked a full representa-

Ming of the chapter, heading the official line. We Kasim Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S. D. O'Flaherty has been deputised to the called off for the summer in June, will resume its communications for the fall and winter Thursday evening at 8 efclock in Lodgeroom No. 2, when the M. M. degree will be presented.

Naval Lodge, No. 4, will hold a special Thursday evening for the M. M. degree will be presented.

Naval Lodge, No. 4, will hold a special Thursday evening for the M. M. degree, the announcement of which in the set of the first meeting after the summer recess and the set of the is scheduled for Friday evening, at Masonic Hall, 1210 Wisconsin avenue. No charge is to be made at the door, but a silver collection is to be taken. Ice cream and cake, with good music, are the inducements besides the danc-

William F. Hunt Chapter, No. 16, will have a "1916 night" Thursday evening, when the matrons of the other chapters will fill the stations for the degrees. Worthy Grand Matron Ids V. Faber and Worthy Grand Patron Ben W. Murch will head the line. A program of entertainment also is promised. A general invitation is extended to the fraternity to attend.

Ascension Chapter, No. 20. will have its grand visitation October 6, when the chapter will be opened sharp at 7:30 p.m. The circle will meet Tuesday at Mrs. G. R. Haley's, 3214 13th street northwest, when the members are requested to bring all articles ready for the bazzar in October. At its last meeting the chapter had among its guests Past Grand Matron Catharina Loeffer, Grand Lecturer Teachum and Grand Warden Crawford. Past Patron Frank Morgan of Esther Chapter acted for the worthy patron, who was absent.

Mispah Chapter, No. 8, had eight of its charter members present Tuesday evening, when "Charter Members night" was celebrated. Among the visitors were Past Grand Matron Caroline Handy, a member of Esther Chapter, No. 5, who was grand matron when the chapter was instituted in 1398. Past Grand Matron Carrie Bornheim sat in the east. The charter members present included Mrs. Carrie Bornheim, William M. Bornheim, B. F. Harper, Mrs. Jessie G. Cunningham, Mrs. A. Louisa Compton, Mrs. Annie Thrift, W. S. Waddy and Mrs. Louisa Wagner. After the reception addresses were made by Past Grand Matron Handy, Past Grand Matron Bornheim, who was the chapter's first matron and who reviewed its early history; Grand Patron Ben W. Murch, one of the first candidates to be initiated in the chapter and its second worthy patron. Associate Grand Patron Rowen sang, accompanied by Miss Margaret Kunkle. Mispah Chapter, No. 8, had eight of

La Fayette Lodge, No. 19, will have the M. M. degree at a special, which will convene Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, which will conclude the work for the present Masonic year, which expires at midnight.

Osiris Lodge, No. 26, at its communication Wednesday evening, after general discussion of the subject, voted

Class of prominent Masons is promised.

The Supreme Council for the Northing was entertained with a program prepared by Mrs. Mary Baldwin, chairman of the entertainment committee, which included a piano solo by Conducters Theodora Cunningham; humorous recitation, Past Patron James and Illinois following in the order named. Announcement was made by Parry of Brookland Chapter. At the close of the evening refreshments were the second of the sevening colors. The second of the sevening refreshments were to see that the second is set to see the second of the sevening refreshments were to see that the second is set to seven the second of the sec

Thursday—Excelsior, No. 17, degree; Balem, No. 22, second degree; Co-lumbia, No. 10, and Covenant, No. 13, business. Friday—Central, No. 1, and Metropolis, No. 10, degree; Phoenix, No. 28, business.

ENCAMPMENTS. Tuesday-Fred D. Stuart, No. 7, busi-

Patriarchis Militant.

Saturday—Columbian, No. 1, degree.

PATRIARCHS MILITANT.

Saturday—Canton Washington, No. 1, drill and social.

Past Grand W. E. Lawson, president of the I. O. O. F. Bowling League, has called a meeting of the league tomorrow evening in the blue room of I. O. O. F. Hall at 8 o'clock for the I. O. O. F. Hall at 8 o'clock for the purpose of preparing the schedules for the coming season. All members interested in bowling are invited to be I. O. O. F. Hall at 8 o'clock for the terested in bowling are invited to be present. Last season each lodge had a team in the league, and it is expected that all lodges will have teams. Some, it is said, have expressed a desire to have two teams. At the close of last season's series the league presented to the Odd Fellows' Home Association to a large donation on behalf of the mem bers of the league.

Columbian Encampment, No. 1, will confer the degree Wednesday evening. sentative to the Grand Encampment, who has been attending the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge at Chattanooga, will not return in time for the meeting. Chief Patriarch S. W. Hawkins has requested all members to be present, as consideration is to be given plans for future work.

be as large. Grand Master W. J. Hope and officers of the Grand Lodge will officially visit Langdon Lodge Monday evening. October 2. This will be the first grand visitation of the fall series.

Federal City Lodge conferred the second degree last Wednesday, with Director McConnell in charge of the degree team. Among the visitors were Messrs. Pyle of New Haven, Conn.; H. B. Brown, Richmond, Va., and J. H. Caswell, Concord, N. H. The death, Wednesday, of Dr. G. T. Prewitt, who had the honor of directing the Federal City prize degree team at Richmond, Va., several years ago, has been announced. Noble Grand Teague has announced also the second degree for next Wednesday. He appointed Charles Garrels, R. H. Wood and H. G. Ramlo a committee to further by all honorable means the candidacy of Past Grand Master John H. Wood for the office of grand representative. The roll call will take place October 4.

Friendship Lodge, No. 12, will receive, by transfer, at its next meeting, several members from other jurisdictions. At the last meeting arrangements were the beginning of next month confer degrees at every meeting during the remainder of the term. It is re-ported that the lodge this year will show a large increase in membership.

Webster Lodge, No. 7, will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary at an early date. The committee in charge of the event will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the residence of the chairman, Maj. E. T. Whiting, to complete arrangements. Visitors who were in attendance at the convention Tuesday night and made short talks included George C. Gumm of Columbus Lodge, No. 3, Columbus, Ohio; Curtis L. Ryan, chancellor commander-elect of Criterion Lodge, No. 127, Norfolk, Va., and others. The second degree was conferred upon two candidates of Eastern oLdge, No. 7, and one from Excelsior Lodge, No. 17, Wednesday night. A number of visit-Wednesday night. A number of visit-ors from Excelsior accompanied their candidate. In the absence of Degree Director Lawson, Past Grand Kelly took charge. Programs of the fall visi-tations of the Grand Lodge were dis-tributed. The third degree will be con-ferred next Wednesday, after which re-freahments and entertainment will be provided.

to be a surprise. The entertainment committee has been pledged to secrecy as to the nature of the entertainment.
Grand Herald H. L. Andersen is in charge of the plans. At the last meeting a large number of members and visitors participated in the "linen Calanthe Lodge, as well as brothers of the order generally. visitors participated in the "linen shower" for the Odd Fellows' Home. Past Noble Grand Anna Billings, chairman of the committee in charge of furnishing Esther Lodge's room at the home, reports that the hardwood floor has been laid and the room papered and painted and that it is now ready for the furniture. Degree Director Hen-retta Werner has been holding weekly

Rebekah Lodges.

| Monday-Esther, No. 5, business and social.
| Wednesday-Mount Pleasant, No. 9, degree, Fiday-Martha Washington, No. 3, and Dorcas, No. 4, business.
| Excelsior Lodge, No. 14, conferred the page rank Tuesday night. The attendance included members from most of the lodges of the District and many from outside jurisdictions. The team was assisted by Past Supreme Representative Joseph B. Conner and Grand Chancellor Dickman. Supreme Representative Mark Stearman spoke about the work of the recent convention of the Supreme Lodge, short talks were made by the grand chancellor and others, and Past Chancellor Talbott Pulizzi of Rathbone-Superior Lodge will continue the work on a class at the next and the following conventions.

Calanthe Lodge, No. 11, has the page Columbia Lodge, No. 26, has the page rank scheduled for the next conven-tion. The rank was conferred at the last meeting.

Grand Prelate C. W. Henderson made a fraternal visit to Hermione Lodge, No. 12, at the last convention. A number of grand lodge officers and others have

The Star not later than noon Thursday of each week. Items which relate to events that occur after that time, or contain new and important announcements that cannot be sent in earlier, will be received up to noon Saturday, but not later.

Communications written on both sides of the paper will not be accepted. All communications must be signed with the names and addresses of the persons conding the esses of the persons sending them.

Communications for any of these columns must be received by Rathbone Temple, No. 8, conducted the funeral services of the order for Miss Mary Rose Steiner Friday night at her late residence, 426 8th street northeast. Miss Steiner, who died Thursday after a brief illness, and account of the council. No. 20, will hold an initiation Tuesday evening in the Odd Fellows Hall, Georgetown. On and after October 1 the council will meet every Tuesday evening in Society Temple, 5th and G streets northwest. Grand V. Estelle Yoakley. The following program was presented: Recitations, Mrs. Fannie Chaffee; piano solo.

Miss Mary P. Carter; addresses, Grand Master W. J. Hope and President Belle
M. Carter of the Rebekah ssembly. Refreshments were served. Degree Director V. Estelle Yoakley is arranging a series of rehearsals of the degree team preparatory for the winter's work. Thursday after a brief illness, had long been a member and was a past chief of the temple. She was very popular and much loved by the membership. She The chairman of the special ways and means committee of the Rebekah Assembly, Past Noble Grand Roberta V. Volland, has made arrangements for a theater party on Tuesday evening, October 3, at Poll's Theater. In accordance with the recommendation adopted at the last meeting of the assembly, all officers will be present. was grand manager of the Grand Temple of Pythian Sisters of Virginia and the District of Columbia, and would have been advanced to the station of grand junior at the convention of the Grand Temple at Petersburg, Va., next month. Interment was at Frederick, Md., yesterday afternoon.

The officers and members of Rath-bone Temple report a straw ride Mon-day night, an annual event with the or-ganization.

Fidelity Lodge, No. 7, conferred the Knights of Pythias.

LODGES. Monday—Decatur, No. 9, business. Calanthe, No. 11, page rank.

Tuesday—Excelsior, No. 14, esquire rank. Webster, No. 7; Capital, No. 24, and Myrtle, No. 25, business.

Wednesday—Columbia, No. 26, page rank. Mount Vernon, No. 5; Her-mione, No. 12, and Union, No. 22, business.

Friday-Syracusians, No. 10; celebration and knight rank. PYTHIAN SISTERS. Wednesday-Friendship Temple, No. 9. Friday-Rathbone Temple, No. 8, in-who has already received the page and esquire ranks in this lodge, at the re quest of Eustis Lodge of Eustis, Fla.

planned.

ber 20.

Two hundred members of the order and their families today are enjoy-ing the excursion given by the Co-lumbus Country Club to Old Point Comfort.

neid in Miriam lodgeroom Friday evening. All members of the Miriam-Lodge meeting. All members of the Rebekah degree are invited to be present, particularly officers of the Rebekah lodges.

At the annual election of the Fourth Following were chosen: Faithful navigator, C. Eugene Edwards; faithful admiral, Dr. William E. Pairo; faithful admiral, Dr. William E. Pairo; faithful friar, Father C. O. Rosensteel; controller, B. G. Lennon; purser, Thomas K. Gallaher; faithful scribe, Conner Donnelly; insacted as quickly as possible so that the social scheduled can be given. This is the first of a series of entertainment to be given this fail. Harry L. Andresen, chairman of the entertainment committee, announces a fine program. The younger set has been kept busy preparing for this event, which, it is claimed, will be a surprise. Following the big surprise, refreshments will be served. Members of other lodges and the following were chosen: Faithful navies and the following were chosen: Faithful navies at the following were chosen: Faithful navies at faithful captain, L. A. Ratcliffe; faithful admiral, Dr. William E. Pairo; faithful admiral, Dr. William E. Pai At the annual election of the Fo sen, chairman of the entertainment committee, announces a fine program. The younger set has been kept busy preparing for this event, which, it is claimed, will be a surprise. Following the big surprise, refreshments will be served. Members of other lodges and other jurisdictions are invited to attend.

Washington Council Tuesday evening will hold a "get-together night," for which the lecturer, F. J. Krieg, has pro-vided a program of entertainment and

At the meeting of Potomac Council tomorrow evening Charles W. Darr, master of the Fourth Degree for the District of Columbia and Maryland, and his staff will be present.

The exemplification of the Fourth Degree on "Discovery day" will be held sunday evening. October 8, in memory of Christopher Columbus. A speaker of Syracusians Lodge, No. 10, has ara late hour, when refreshments were served. The affair was in charge of Mrs. Charles Fischer, Mrs. Reginald De Vaney and Mrs. George A. Howe, Arrangements are being made for the annual banquet of the Daughters of Isabella, to be held the evening of October 19. Mrs. James G. Haskell is chairman of the arrangements committee.

The next meeting of the Daughters will be held Wednesday evening, October 4. lating to their shaence. The fraternity is invited to be present. A program appropriate to the occasion has been The team of the lodge expects to confer the knight rank on a candidate Improved Order of Red Men.

At the annual session of the Great The committee arranging the celebration in honor of Past Supreme Chancellor Dunn and Mrs. Dunn. met Thursday night and considered plans for the event. Word has been received by Grand Chancellor Dickman that Supreme Chancellor Brown will be unable to be present on account of a previous engagement. It is expected he will designate some officer or member of the Supreme Lodge to represent him. Miss Gertrude Lyons and talent associated with her have been engaged to furnish the musical and literary features of the program. The next meeting will be held Thursday night. The celebration will be held in the auditorium of the Pythian Temple Friday night, October 20. Council of the United States held in Wildwood, N. J., September 11 to 15, inclusive, the following great chiefs were elected: Judge Thomas H. Jeffries of Atlanta, Ga., great incohonee; James T. Rogers of Binghamton, N. Y., great senior sagamore; Judge A. G. Rutherford of Nashville, Tenn., great junior sagamore; Frederick O. Downs of Boston, Mass., great prophet; Wilson Brooks of Chicago, Ill., great chief of records, and D. K. Reed of Clarksburg, records, and D. K. Reed of Clarksburg,

W. Va., great keeper of wampum.
Great Incohonee Jeffries made the following appointments: Charles H. Bisch of Indiana, great tocakon; Clare W.
Robinson of Montana. great minewa, and Clarence R. Winfield of California, great guard of the forest.
Among the legislation passed was a resolution to take advantage of existing laws relative to biennial meetings.

resolution to take advantage of existing laws relative to biennial meetings. The next session will be held in 1918 at Hot Springs, Ark.

Wildwood was overrun with Redmen and their families, and a parade was held composed of members of the order from nearby states, which was two hours in passing a given point.

Past Great Sachem James A. Madison, jr., representative from this city, and Dr. H. W. Tippett were in attendance at the business sessions of the Great Council.

Mineola Tribe at its last meeting conferred the chief's degree on E. H. Ware and considered the application of Harry A. Boss. The tribe recently adopted a resolution raising its initiation fee to $25.

White Eagle Tribe will present the Red Men's scroll to Osage Tribe Octo-ber 2. All members of the order are in-vited to be present to witness the ceremony.

Osceola Tribe reports T. M. Stump still sick, but slowly improving. Mr. Mercer, a member of Comanche Tribe of Atlanta, Ga., also is being cared for by the relief chiefs. Messrs. McCalry, Clemons and Tolson are reported able to be at work again. Several applications received will be held in reserve for the class adoption October 17.

Seneca Tribe had as a visitor Mr. Hayes from Rhode Island at its last meeting. He gave a talk on the doings of the Red Men in his state. The bowling team of the tribe is getting in form for the opening games, and a committee of the team is getting things in shape in the other tribes.

composed of teams representing the valing team of the tribe is getting in form for the opening games, and a committee of the team is getting things in shape in the other tribes.

Sons of Jonadab.

By a unanimous vote of the sovereign body of the original order Charles F. Sudwarth will continue his services as sovereign chief. At the conclusion of the reading of his annual report at the forty-ninth annual meeting of the Sovereign Council, held last Sunday in this city, Mr. Sudwarth tendered his resignation with an urgent request that it be accepted.

Frank J. McKenna and other members composed of teams representing the valicus camps in the District of Columbia is under way. Messrs. Dowling and Runge have been appointed to represent at the meeting to be held soon.

Commander-in-chief Capt. Daniel V. Chisholm and James E. Maynard, adjutant general, both members of Harden Camp, were present at the meeting, and addressed the camp. Department Commander Lee Harris also briefly outlined the trip of the District delegates to the Chicago encampment. Capt. Chisholm announced the apointment of James J. Murphy, commander of Harden Camp, as quartermaster general.

Among the visitors were Messrs. Vermillion of Petit Camp and Keegan and Farner of Lawton Camp.

The serious illness of Joseph Daly, a member of the camp, was reported.

Capital Council, No. 25, received one capital council, No. 2s, received one application for membership at its last meeting. An initiation is scheduled for tomorrow night. Balston Council has invited this council to attend a flag raising at the Virginia county courthouse today at the Virginia county courthouse today at 4 p.m. Past Councilor Pott and Messrs. Bunn and Coulter made addresses.

Mount Vernon Council, No. 10, met Wednesday night. Oden Beall, who has been ill, under care of Wilkes-Barre Council, No. 161, of Pennsylvania, has Knights of Columbus.

Carroll Council met Tuesday evening.
Charles W. Darr, master of the Fourth Degree for the District of Columbia and Maryland, and staff were present. Mr.
Darr gave an account of the activities of the Fourth Degree.

Two hundred members of the order

Council, No. 161, of Pennsylvania, has been reported improved. The good of the order committee's annual report was submitted and approved. One candidate was elected and one application was received. At the meeting of the general good of the order committee's night was received. At the meeting of the general good of the order committee's annual report was submitted and approved. One candidate was elected and one application was received. At the meeting of the general good of the order committee's annual report was submitted and approved. One candidate was elected and one application was received. At the meeting of the general good of the order committee's annual report was submitted and approved. One candidate was elected and one application was received. At the meeting of the general good of the order committee's annual report was submitted and approved. One candidate was elected and one application was received. At the meeting of the general good of the order committee's friday night, in Star Spangled Banner Council's Hall, 5th and G streets northwest, the following officers were elected to the order committee of the order of the general good of the order committee was received. At the meeting of the general good of the order committee was received. At the meeting of the general good of the order committee was received. At the meeting of the general good of the order committee was submitted and proved. The good of the order committee was submitted and proved. The good of the order committee was submitted and proved. The good of the order committee was submitted and proved. The good of the order committee was submitted and proved. The good of the order committee was submitted and proved. The good of the order committee was submitted and proved a E. Skinner of Andrew Jackson Council, No. 6; chaplain, J. H. Lumsden of No. 46, and trustee, H. C. Harlan of Andrew Jackson Council, No. 6. Addresses were made by Vice Councilor J. A. Smith-son and W. S. Wayland of Anacostia, No. 16.

Daughters of America.

The National Council will convene he first Monday of October in Wheel- ants for the fall recruiting campaign. ing, W. Va. A large delegation of members from this jurisdiction is expected to attend the session.

Mizpah Council, No. 3, Friday evening received the report of the State Council representatives to the twentieth annual session of the State Council, which showed that the order had made a gain in membership as well as financially.

of Christopher Columbus. A speaker of national importance will be present and attractive musical program has been arranged for the evening.

Daughters of Isabella.

The Daughters of Isabella gave their first dance of the season at K. of C. Hall Wednesday evening. More than 200 persons attended and dereced with a lalso state secretary of Virginia.

Hall Wednesday evening. More than 200 persons attended and danced until a late hour, when refreshments were to Tuesday evening in honor of the late hour, when refreshments were to Tuesday evening in honor of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the late of the Ladies of the Maccommander of the Ladies of th

sentative."

Past State Councilor Mrs. Laura Burdette, Past State Councilor Mrs. E. Viola Thompson, Mrs. J. Cooper, Mrs. Ada Herbert, Mrs. Sweeney, Mrs. Jessie Richards, Mrs. Ida Kerper and Mr. and Mrs. West each extended congratula. Mrs. West, each extended congratula-tions to Mrs. Howell and offered their services for any time they can be of use to her during the official year. One candidate was initiated. Refreshments were served.

Progressive Council, No. 9, Thursday evening elected two card members and received an invitation from Seabrook ouncil to attend an entertainment

October 10.

The trustees reported that $100 had been deposited.

The representatives to the State Council made their report.

The by-laws of the council are to be printed and presented to the council by the "Golconda Club."

The second annual masquerade ball will be held Friday, October 27, with prizes for the most original and for the most humorous costumes. The dress ball will be held Saturday, November 18.

Hope Council, No. 1, met Tuesday

Maccabees.

Mt. Vernon Tent. No. 4, at Now sonic Temple, 8th and F street no east, Tuesday evening had an ove: meeting. Messra. Kirkman, Kre Hammond, Cline, Clifton, Kump Wildman were initiated. Frank E. Springmann filed three plications. Since the appointment Mr. Springmann as deputy, it is the members are striving to make the members are striving to make the banner tent of the District. Knight Foster of National Tent an address on "Why He Is A Macca Speeches were made also by Madamson, Springmann and others, freshments were served under the rection of Mr. Sturges. Entertains and refreshments will be served a month during the winter by this te

A. W. Frye, newly appointed marshal of the Maccabees, held a sion of state commanders and destate commanders of Maryland, Narolina, Virginia and the Districtions of the Maryland of the Distriction of the Maryland of the Distriction of the Maryland of the Columbia at the Hotel Raleigh T day to discuss new plans and pol-

Owing to press of business in state of Virginia, Deputy Supreme ( mander D. W. Gall has given the s in the District of Columbia ove Deputy State Commander H. W. 1 lips.

Golden Rule Tent, No. 3, held a cial meeting and banquet Thui evening at the home of the record I er. O. W. Hammond, on 8th streetintroduce the new District camp manager, H. W. Phillips, who will charge of all work in the District the remainder of the rear.

Independent Order Rechal : :: White Ribbon Tent, No. 954, juve Ile, will meet at 643 Louisiana av nue northwest this afternoon and Su lay afternoon hereafter at 3:30 o'clock.

At the recent session of the Tent the following officers were electharles T. Carroll, high chief it does charles Eller, past high chief ruler; and the control of the contr

Onward Tent, No. 1021, is consid n the celebration of its thirteenth annuary, in October.

Washington Camp, No. 205 is now a tering upon its new year. New offi have been elected and committees a pointed to handle the large volume f work which has been mapped out the ensuing year. The camp is fire entering upon the second year of two-year historical chautauqua cou The first number of this year's cot will be held in November, when F. will be held in November, when F. Fravel will deliver an address pert i ing to southern history. Gen. Willi C. Gorgas, surgeon general of the ar has been invited to preside at this m ing. Representative Frank Park Georgia has been invited to preside a later meeting. Both are members of the camp.

Mount Vernon Review, No. 2, v 11

Victory Review, No. 12, is still to rmain "banner review" of the Distrthe state banner having been awarded to it again for having made the larg snet gain in membership the first six months of the year. This makes the third consecutive time Victory Review has won the state banner under the leadership of its commander, Mrs.
Katherine E. Cartner.

At the meeting Tuesday evening two candidates were initiated. Visitors present were Mrs. A. M. Welch, district deputy; Mrs. Shannon, Mrs. Jost and Mrs. Dobrowolski of Liberty Unica,
No. 6. Plans were completed for a public installation of officers October L.
Refreshments were served.

Arrangements are being made by Oak Camp. No. 4, met Wednesday evening and seven candidates were in-itiated. Seven applications also we received. Addresses were made by t consul commander and several visito: s.

Company A, 103d Regiment, has an-

Fraternal Order of Eagles.

The entertainment committee has re-Council made their report.

The by-laws of the council are to be printed and presented to the council by the "Golconda Club."

The second annual masquerade ball will be held Friday, October 27, with prizes for the most original and for the most humorous costumes. The dress ball will be held Saturday, November 18.

A class initiation will be held in October in honor of the council deputy.

Some and Daughtons (I.1) sumed its meetings. Last Monday night evening with Mrs. M. M. Prender, councilor pro tem. A large number of members returned from their vacations and addresses were made. The council is planning a class initiation for October 17. A committee was appointed to investigate rental of another hall. The relief committee reported as to the condition of sick members.

United Spanish War Veterans Richard J. Harden Camp, No. 2, Thursceived a communication from C. Long will soon return to this city. C. M. Hunter, who has been at the Modern Woodman Snatorium, at Committee relief committee reported to investigate rental of another hall. The relief committee reported as to the condition of sick members.

United Spanish War Veterans Richard J. Harden Camp, No. 2, Thursceived with enthusiasm by Georgetown

ELICIOUS PEACH ICE CREAM Made with fresh, juicy Peaches and Pure, Rich, Pas-teurized Cream. It's Delicious—Try some— SPECIAL LOW PRICES to Lodges and Societies.

REISINGER'S, Phone Main 2767

dren play games and are served via refreshments. All children from years to fourteen years old are then in as members.

Sons of Confederate Veteran

Women's Benefit Association.

meet in Pythian Temple tomorrow evening, and Commander Mrs. Hattie E. Taylor and Record Keeper Mrs. Mn y A. Van Ness will choose their assi !-Reports show a successful three-urummage sale.

Washington Sanitarium, in Takon.

Woodmen of the World.

committee headed by Capt, William G. Stott, quartermaster of the 103d Revi ment, to unveil the monument erectto the memory of the late Harry Hand at Mount Olivet cemetery, Sunday, tober 1, at 2 p.m., with oration and eulogy by Capt. Stott.

mounced a dance some time during to month of October, the date to be an-

Sons and Daughters of Liberty Modern Woodmen of America Central Camp, No. 16015, Friday night

Richard J. Harden Camp, No. 2, Thursday night increased its roster by the addition of the following new members: Hugh L. Peden, 1st South Carolina Volunteers; Theodore E. Mullican, U. S. N.; Fred H. Phillips, 3d Tennessee Volunteers; Dennis D. Walker, 1st District of Columbia Volunteers; Thacker V. Walker, 1st District of Columbia Volunteers; Frank A. Langa, 3d Mississippi Volunteers; E. B. Cook, 1st Nebraska Volunteers, and T. W. Cummings, 3d United States Coast Artillery.

The formation of a duckpin league composed of teams representing the various camps in the District of Columbia and Brunge have been appointed to represent Harden Camp at a general meeting to